The President of the UBC
Mr. Per Bødker Andersen

The refugee situation in Europe

Member countries in EU have huge work and responsibility with the influx of refugees. To reception and integration to work requires extensive work at the local level. Cities and counties do in many places today, great efforts.

The member cities in UBC network is an important cooperation, should be able to give each other a good example and encourage solidarity with people in need.

I suggest that we during UBC General Conference in Gdynia pay attention to this.

Best regards
