The most common way to get to Saaremaa is by ferry from the mainland: www.tuulelaevad.ee. Those who favour flying, can come by plane from Tallinn: www.estonian-air.ee; www.kuressaare-airport.ee. The two yacht harbours in Kuressaare are waiting for visitors who prefer sailing: Kuressaare City Harbour: www.kuressaare.ee/sadam/; Roomassaare Harbour: web.me.com/vahase/roomassaare/l.html. Kuressaare has a regular bus connection with Tallinn, Tartu and Pärnu: www.peatus.ee, www.bussireisid.ee.

Kuressaare is the capital of Estonia's biggest island - Saaremaa. It has been an important health resort since the 19th century. Seven great spa-hotels, attract tourists all year round. The picturesque historical centre accommodates a variety of lovely small cafes and nice restaurants. An 18-hole, par 72 championship level golf course and local health parks are waiting for those interested in sports.

Night of bats in Ķemeri National Park

Jūrmala is the largest resort city in the Baltic I States, well-known for its natural treasures - mild climate, sea, healthy air, curative mud and mineral waters. The charm lives in its almost 33 km long white sand beaches, the vast pine forests and the natural border of the city - the Lielupe River. People come here to recover or strengthen their health enjoying the healing effect of mud bathing and mineral waters. Every season here brings plenty of events for everyone - art exhibitions, local and international events and concerts. Jūrmala is the city on the wave - on the wave of change and success.

Ustka is a seaside resort located on a Middle Coast characterized by unique, picturesque landscapes by the mouth of the Słupia river-150 km west away from voivodship capital city-Gdańsk and 18 km north away from Słupsk. Beautiful sandy beaches, clear water, a great number of sunny days per year and many summer events make Ustka a popular spa for both health & leisure as well as holiday destination. Maritime air with lots of iodine and a scent with a pine aroma and also rich deposit of brine and therapeutic mud are natural merits of our town. Thanks to therapeutic properties of the climate, Ustka possesses a status of a health-resort. Ustka resort is well known for the highest standards of management and care.
