

Krustpils castle

Krustpils castle is a true landmark of Jekabpils City and a „must-see” visitors attraction. It was firstly mentioned in chronicles in 1237. For several centuries the castle belonged to the Korff family. Now it houses Jekabpils History Museum with medieval cellars, historical interior and a Soviet Army room. The tower of the castle is frequently used for art exhibitions and is a great spot to enjoy a city views from above.
