

Baltic Ports Conference
4-5th September 2014
Rønne (Bornholm), Denmark
Hotel Griffen

Tourist/leisure and fishery ports in the Baltic – stimulating the cooperation

3rd September 2014
Rønne (Bornholm), Denmark
Hotel Griffen

14.00 Welcome and introduction:

Bjarne Loef Henriksen, Commercial and Political Adviser, Danish Ports

Fishery and Maritime Fund – a tool to support small ports in EU

Representative of European Commission | tbi

Effective management of marinas

Representative of the Marriage Project | tbi

Co-operation between small ports in order to create common network of marinas

Villu Vatsfeld, Chairman of the Executive Board, Saarte Liinid Ltd. | tbc

Attractive tourist products and co-operation with land based tourism industry

Case studies will be presented

16.00 Coffee Break

Discussion

How to manage the small ports?

- Co-operation between marinas in the Baltic, Diversification of activities
- What is the future of fishery ports in the Baltic
- How to secure money to finance projects?
- Is there a need for Baltic co-operation between small ports and marinas?
- Project initiatives and how to finance these projects.

Followed by evening tour around the Bornholm Island.

Seminar is addressed to:

- Managers from small ports with tourism and fishery activities;
- Officials from towns having the sea ports and marinas;
- Governmental representatives dealing with transport and port policies;
- Port related businesses;
- Representatives of port associations;
- Researchers, consultants, etc.