

Ship Pommern

On the Pommern, the world's only four-masted merchant sailing ship still in its original state, you really get a feel of how the crew and officers lived and worked. Extensive displays explain the working details of the ship while a photography exhibition and short film give a rare glimpse of life in the last days of sail.

<http://www.visitaland.com/en/services/aland-sjofartsmuseum/>

